BROOKLYN EVENING STAR.

[From the Flag of Our Union.]

TO A FALSE ONE.

BY J. S. HOAG, M. D.

I will not tell thee all my sorrow,—
This bitter anguish of my heart;
But hope thou'lt be as gay to-morrow,
As if we were not forced to part.

I've loved thee with a strong affection,—
My fondest dreams have been of thee;
But Love my love a wrong direction,
Nor grieve that thou hast ne'er one free.

But go, and follow in false and phantom—
Thy path from every sorrow free;
While sought but grief, and woe, and sadness,
Will ever cast their shade on me.

Yet, go! I will not say remember,—
Thy baneless sorrow, brings fanciful out chill;
Like the dread blaze of dreary November,
So that fond heart thou once didst thrill.

Go, show thy charms,—fool admirers,—
Go, captivate adoring souls;
To adore thee when thy smile retires,
With passions which thy charm controls.

I've felt thy charms—I own thy power,—
But I have broke the magic spell;
Yet can't forget that fatal hour,
Although I may a last farewell.

FAIRYLAND.

When violet odor fill the air,
When May is pink in lac-ge and lea,
Will yesterdays seem as years,
And days all longings wake in me—
And I believe in Fairyland.

When sunset fades along the west,
In blue, and green, and blue tower,
I hear the murmurs of the Blest
Blown from those old forgotten towers—
And I believe in Fairyland.

When summer comes with bloom and leaf,
And looks and laughs their' morning trees;
When crimson peach and golden sheaf
Hang ripening in the sun and breeze—
Then I believe in Fairyland.

When kindness half would look like love,
In eyes that give, yet veil their light;
When song and fragrance float above,
And ornaments upon on the night—
Then I believe in Fairyland.

☞ The Newport (Ky.) News learns that a gentleman and his lady came from the country to that city, but a few days ago to pay a visit to their old acquaintances Mr. and Mrs. ——. The gentleman went to enjoy the evening among their brethren of a certain society, but having staid out to a very late hour, all the family were in bed and fast asleep when they returned. The gentleman of the house of course went to his usual place of sleeping after showing his friend the bed in another room where he supposed his wife lay; but unfortunately the lady of the house had given up her own bed (being the best one in the house) to her visiting friends, to treat them in the best manner she could, expecting to inform their husbands on their return. All went quietly to bed, and in the morning awoke almost frightened out of their lives to find themselves so snugly locked in the arms of their rival companions. The ladies both fainted, but their lords, being old acquaintances and the best of friends, all was made right again.

INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.—The following paragraph, which we translate from a Tyrolese paper, will be interesting to those who are at all familiar with the History of Hofer, the Tell of the Tyrol, and the hero of so many of Bettine's letters to Goethe:

"The rooms of the house in Rinn, in which Joseph Speckbacher, the celebrated commander of the Tyrol riflemen, lived during the eventful year 1809, have recently been newly painted. In tearing away the old wainscot the copious correspondence of the various leaders of the Tyrolese was found. This correspondence comprehends letters of Hofer, Hospinyer, Winterseller, Aschbacher, Raschmann, Sieberer and other Tyrol notables, relating entirely to the events which occurred in the famous war against the French. The entire collection has been presented by the present owner of the house, to the Editor of the Schutzenzeitung."

CONVERSIONS TO PROTESTANTISM IN GERMANY.—According to official reports, 648 persons renounced Catholicism and embraced Protestantism in Silesia last year. Of these 648 persons, 268 were adults, and the remainder had already been confirmed. Independent of these, 466 Roman Catholic parents had their children baptised in the Protestant Church in the year 1851. These figures are higher, in comparison, than in the previous year, 1850; for in the official list for that year only 408 converts were entered, of whom 159 were adults. In that year, also, only 187 children of Roman Catholic parents were baptised in the Protestant Church in Silesia. It appears that many persons who had joined the so-called German Catholic Churches are now going over to the Protestant Churches, on account of the great obstacles which have been put in the way of the German Catholics.

CENSUS FOR IRELAND.—The part of this census, showing the area, population and number of houses, by townlands and electoral divisions in the county of Kilkenny, has been issued. When taken by baronies, the area of country is estimated at 506,330 acres, and the population in 1841 was 183,349; while in 1851, it had decreased to 138,773. The number of houses in 1841 was 29,981, while in 1851 it was 24,962. As taken by poor law unions the area was 307,284 acres, and the population in 1841 was 202,420; whereas in 1851 it was only 138,746.

☞ A gentleman who accompanied the remains of Henry Clay to Louisville spoke of a neat little tribute of respect that took place at Rising Sun. As the the Ben Franklin passed that place the passengers saw quite a demonstration upon the banks. It consisted of thirty-one young ladies dressed in white, with one exception, with black veils, each with a banner representing the different States, the one indicating Kentucky was dressed in deep mourning.

Canning leads to knavery; it is but a step from one to the other, and that very slippery; lying only makes the difference; add that to cunning and it is knavery.

The population of the Austrian Empire is 36,514,466.

VALUE OF MONEY.—If you want to learn the value of money, says the Knickerbocker, go and labor for a day or two as a hod-carrier, beneath the scorching rays of a summer sun. This is an excellent idea, and if many of our young gentlemen had to earn their dollars in that way, how much less dissipation and crime we would witness every day! So of our fashionable young ladies, if they, like some of the poor seamstresses of our large cities, had to earn their dollars by making shirts at ten cents apiece, how much less finery would we see about them, how much more truthful notions would they have of their duties of life and their obligations to the rest of the world.

A SPECIMEN.—Heard from a Sunday-school teacher, just now, an illustration of one kind of 'Christian Forgiveness.' Improving upon the day's 'lesson,' the teacher asked a boy whether, 'in view' of what he had been studying and repeating, he could forgive those who had wronged him. 'Could you,' said the teacher, 'forgive a Scot, for example, who had insulted or struck you?' 'Y-e-es, Sir,' replied the lad very slowly, 'I—guess—I—could;' but he added, in a more rapid manner: 'I could, if he was bigger than I am!' Is it's there something of 'grown experience' in that?—[From the Knickerbocker.

Boys that have been properly reared are men in point of usefulness at sixteen while those who leave been brought up in idleness are a nuisance at twenty-one.

The Imperial territory of Austria covers a space of 12,120,460 geographical square miles.

BROOKLYN EVENING STAR OFFICE.

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 15th.

PROPRIETOR—E. B. SPOONER.

FOR PRESIDENT,
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT,
OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM,
OF NORTH CAROLINA.

OUR OWN AFFAIRS.—As the Whigs are now organizing in the various Wards for the Fall Campaign it is to be hoped that they will make arrangements for the payment of their bills due this office.

Our demands are against the—First Ward, Second Ward, Third Ward, Fourth Ward, Fifth Ward, Sixth Ward, Seventh Ward, Ninth Ward, and the Eleventh Ward.

Although some of these bills are of long standing, it is no reason why they should not be paid. They have been repeatedly rendered and payment denied on the ground that it belonged to some previous committee to pay them. We have always been ready and willing to do the printing of the Ward Committees, but we must decline in future, unless some person will be individually responsible.

N. B.—Persons ordering printing will please at the time names in writing upon the orders.

Tenth Warders Arouse.

☞ The Whigs of the Tenth Ward will meet at ALBERT HEIDE, corner of Smith and Butler streets, on THURSDAY EVENING, the 15th instant, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing themselves into a Club to do battle in the ensuing Campaign—Let every true man who desires the prosperity and advancement of correct principles, be present and show to the Whigs of other Wards that the Tenth is determined to rank among the first in the city.

She is good for three hundred for SCOTT & GRAHAM, if the redemptionists will do their duty.—Fly to work.

Brooklyn, July 13, 1852.

[1; 13 2 t]

Democratic Whig General Committee, of the City of Brooklyn.

☞ A Regular Meeting of this Committee will be held at the Committee Room, (CITY HOTEL,) on FRIDAY EVENING, the 16th instant, at 8 o'clock. By Order,

D. K. SMITH, Chairman.
THOMAS R. MERCEIN, Secretary.

[July 14—2 t]

Attention, Owls!

☞ An Adjourned Meeting of the "SCOTT & GRAHAM" Owl Glee of the City of Brooklyn, will be held at Mr. Pond's, CITY HOTEL, on FRIDAY EVENING, the 16th instant, at 8 o'clock, to have the report of the Committee appointed to select candidates for Officers for the Club, and to transact such other business as may be brought before them. By Order of

Y. H. O. T. C. J. V. D. N. A. N. O. J. N. W.
H. A. CARTER, Chairman.
JOHN M. PERRY, Secretary.

Brooklyn, July 13, 1852.

[1; 13 2t]

☞ The members of the great Whig party who are struggling about the nomination of Gen. Scott, should pause and reflect for a moment upon the tendency their course has relative to the success of Whig principles: for we believe that there are but few Whigs who would go so far, willingly, as to defeat [Whig principles, if they do not like the nominee.

We would ask this class of persons to look at the "bright examples" before them of a Clay and a Webster—acquiescing to the nominations of Harrison, Taylor, and Scott, when they might, with more reason, have spurned the nominations in their actions we find that they act the part of honorable Whigs—clinging to principles and not to men. Every attempt at panic made by the discontents has proven futile. In Boston the Webster meeting, yesterday, broke up in confusion; in fact it was one scene of confusion during the whole meeting. In Alabama and Georgia the discontents have been alike unsuccessful in accomplishing any thing. The Native American Convention, held at Trenton, was a mere "flash in the pan," a fizzle; true they made a nomination. Washington has already destroyed this machination. Webster, every body knows, will not accept.

The split in the Locofoco ranks is of a more serious nature—the nerve and intellect of the party stand aloof from all such nominations as Frank Pierce of New-Hampshire, a "third rate lawyer," half military man, and half something else—a kind of "Jack at all trades and good at none." No wonder that the respectable portion of that party rebel at such a nomination, and declare in favor of Scott or some other candidate other than Pierce. If the Whigs but do their duty, Scott and Graham will be elected by a majority that will show to the world how much we appreciate our men of talent, men who have led our armies to victory when our country has been threatened. The election of Gen. Scott to the Presidency will place us in a position commanding the respect of the world, in a higher degree than our country has compied for years.—The nations of the earth honor the very name of SCOTT, connected as it is with so many ennobling qualities—that raises man above the ordinary range of a mere human being.

Our country is large, and increasing in importance every year, and what we desire, particularly now, is to have a man who will command the respect of the world,—one whose name is a host in itself. Such a man is General Scott. Under his reign our citizens will be respected in foreign countries, and their rights maintained. Let every Whig, then, come forward boldly and resolute in casting a larger vote for the Whig nominee than at any previous election. We feel confident of Scott's election in almost any event; but we would like to have the strength of the Whig party shown at the fall election. A word, and the thing is done.

The morning hour having expired, Mr. McLanahan, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported a bill to provide for the execution of the public printing, and establishing the prices therefor, and for other purposes—thus abolishing the contract system and looking to the election of a printer.

The consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow.

Mr. Stuart then took the floor on a privileged question—for having, on the 13th January last, refused to re-collect the vote by which was referred to the Committee on Roads and Canals the bill making appropriations for the improvement of the navigation of the Illinois River.

The question being put upon the Committee Appropriation Bill

Mr. Fitch supported an amendment he intended to offer, appropriating over $110,000 found due to the C. & I. Ind'ns, for loss sustained during the last war with Great Britain by that portion of the tribe which was friendly to, and co-operated with the United States.

The Committee rose.

On the motion of Mr. Price, 20,000 copies of the speeches and other proceedings attendant on the death of Henry Clay, were ordered to be printed.

The House then adjourned.

MORNING NEWS.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.

The engine and baggage car of the 2 o'clock train for New York, were thrown off the track three miles above Camden. Charles Paul, fireman, was killed. The engineer had his shoulder dislocated. The passenger cars remained upon the track—no others injured. The accident was caused by the rain washing sand over the track.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 13.

A large Southern Rights convention assembled here yesterday, and delayed till 12 o'clock last night two sets of resolutions reported to them—one for keeping up a separate organization, and the other recommending General Pierce.

ALBANY, July 14.

A call appears in the Atlas this evening, for a Democratic State Convention, to be held at Syracuse on the 1st of September, to nominate Candidates for State Officers and the Electoral ticket.

BUFFALO, July 14.

The following persons are known to have been killed on the steamer Oswego: W. Harrison, second mate; Mrs. John Greene, aged 22, formerly of Oswego; Adelia Greene, 2 years, her child; Mrs. Miles Hotchkiss and daughter, of Oswego; Mrs. James Callahan and three children, of Oswego; Joseph Hall, of Oswego; James Phenray, of Cleveland; Mrs. Skinner, 60, residence unknown.

The propeller was insured for $18,000, and is estimated to have been worth $22,000.

A dry goods store, and Speeds telegraph office, were burned down last night, in Westfield, Chautauque county.

ALBANY, July 14.

A dispatch just received from Montreal, announces the election yesterday, of Mr. Papineau, as a member for the County of Two Mountains in Parliament, by a majority of 2 to 1 over the Government Candidate.

SPRINGFIELD, July 14.

As the cars passed Worcester this evening, the U. S. Cadet College there was enveloped in flames, and would probably prove a total loss.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. D. J. LUCAS.—Last evening, about 8 o'clock, one of the most pleasing and interesting ceremonies took place which we have witnessed in Brooklyn for a long time.—About the middle of March last, a young man named Byron Booker, aged about 24 years, a member of the National Guards and of the Lexington Chapter, O. U. A. was taken sick. Being destitute of friends who were unwilling to nurse us and take care of him, he was taken to Mrs. Lucas', whose kindness and attention to him up to the time of his death was so motherly that the Lexington Chapter resolved to give her some testimonial of their thankfulness. Last evening, the members of the Chapter met together at her residence, corner of Myrtle avenue and Law reno street, and through Mr. W. A. Walker, who, in a pleasing and happy address, presented the lady with a set of silver spoons, viz:

6 Tea Spoons; 2 Dessert do.; 1 Sugar do.; 2 Salt do.—bearing the following inscription and an emblem of the order:

Mrs. D. J. Lucas,
from
Lexington Chapter, No. 17, O. U. A.

Committee—Wm. A. Walker, Wm. G. Merrill, John H. Switzer.

The articles were prepared by Spooner and Welsh, No. 39 Myrtle avenue.

SECRETARY.—An old man, named James Smedley, of Philadelphia, attended at the house of his son, with whom he resided in Smith-st, near Bergen Hill, yesterday morning. He had been in low spirits for several days past, and about 3 o'clock in the morning, he left his room, and was found soon after he severed the arteries of his arm with a razor, and bled to death. He was not discovered until life was extinct. An inquest was held upon the body by Coroner Ball, and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts.

☞ Kossuth, the Prince of Hucksters was shoved out of the country yesterday very privately, on board the Africa, unbeknown to but few of even his most devoted friends. He caused it to be announced that his time of departure was fixed for next Saturday. He undoubtedly was afraid that he might be molested by an insulted people.—Truly, he came in like a lion, and went out like a fedon.

NO GO.—The Democrats of this city, in several of the Wards, have endeavored to get up steam for the campaign, but it is no go. Every attempt thus far has been characterized with that peculiar indifference which boys manifest when they don't care whether school keeps or not. Very, yes most decidedly cool affairs, thus far. Beauty even won't get up the steam. We notice several notorious Loco-foco places draped in the garb of mourning. We would not even insinuate however, that the party are in mourning for the lack of enthusiasm. Never say die. We know of a man who sells himself a Whig, who will vote for Lincoln and Hamlin, in the First Ward; so you are sure of one vote. This voters' cars are rather long, but he can be swallowed by a little extra exertion.

A STRIKE.—The laborers in the employ of Mr. Price, builder in Williamsburg, not being content to confine their operations to that City alone, crossed over to the Brooklyn side, near Bedford avenue, yesterday morning, in large numbers, and endeavored to force their views of "a strike" upon a gang of laborers in that vicinity; a general fight had commenced, when Chief of Police Folk, from this City, with about sixty policemen, arrived on the spot, and arrested two of the ring-leaders, and sent the balance a flying. A disturbance is anticipated to-day but will probably be prevented by the police, who will be there in sufficient force to prevent anything serious.

DUNDEE AVENUE.—The argument of the injunction bid upon this improvement was expected to come on during the present term of the Supreme Court, in Newburgh. It will not come on this term, but it is expected to be brought up at the October term, in Poughkeepsie.

The City of Williamsburgh has not authority over it. The injunction laid upon the Commissioners is all that stays its progress.

☞ A surprising genius of the democratic stamp, has discovered a happy omen in the coincidence between the initials of the democratic candidate's name and those of the office which he seeks.—F. P., standing for Fourteenth President and Frank Pierce. The Lantern considers this very remarkable, and says if he had pursued his etymological researches a little further, he would have found that they also stand for Foolish Prediction.

R. S. Denny of Clappville, Leicester, Mass., has lost four woolen mills by fire within the last six; and one-half years. The last was burnt on the 1st inst., and was fully insured.

HE DECLINES.—George C. Washington, who was recently nominated by the Native American party in Convention at Trenton, New-Jersey, for the office of Vice President, is out with a letter declining the nomination. He says that the nomination of Scott and Graham receives his "cordial assent" as well as "zealous support," that he has been on terms of friendly intercourse with General Scott for twenty years, and esteems him for his spotless character and his frank, manly and courteous bearing, and also says: "I respect him for his talents, which have been often severely tested, but which never failed him under the most trying circumstance, and I admire him for his military service, by which the character of his country has been elevated at home and abroad, and which have been equalled by no man, living or dead, since the days of the Revolution.

He freely shed his blood in maintaining the liberties and rights of his country. His patriotic devotion to the Union and Conservative principles, and his firm support of the Compromise measures, cannot, in my belief, be questioned, without doing him a great wrong and injustice.

Mr. Graham is wholly unexceptionable, being respected for his talents and esteemed for his virtues by all who know him."

The letter was published first in the National Intelligencer.

☞ The Post is so notorious for its exaggerated statements that it is seldom worth while to contradict anything it may have in its columns; even the Democratic Journals don't believe all. The following we give as a specimen of what the Post is disposed to be and what it is for veracity:—

NEW JERSEY.—We cannot doubt this State.—Her elections since 1848, have been all one way, and that the right way. From one end of the State to the other, Scott is repudiated by Whigs who are taking a decided stand for Pierce; while a dissenting Democrat cannot be found. In our Ward in Newark, 192 Whigs have already enrolled themselves as members of Sufferee and King Association.—[N. Y. Evening Post.

We assure our respectable contemporary that this is all the sheerest humbug imaginable. Instead of there being 192 Whigs who have enrolled themselves as members of a Pierce and King association in a single Ward of this city, we would state that there is not a single Pierce and King club or association in it. We do not know of one Whig who will vote for Pierce and King, while we are daily informed of respectable adopted citizens, former members of a opposite party, who avow their determination to give their influence in the election of Winfield Scott.—[Newark Mercury.

A FIGHTING MEMBER.—Attened we give a dispatch from Washington which shows that he rowdies are alive yet, at Washington. A good seat of tar and feathers, or a ducking by Tom Hyer or we recommended something nicer, for such disgraceful conduct would do that species of puppy good:

WASHINGTON, July 14.

An altercation occurred in the Pension Office this morning, which will probably result in legal proceedings against a member of Congress. It appears that during a conversation between Mr. Van Wyck and Gil. Hobbs, in the latter's room, on the subject of the House in refusing to increase the salaries of clerks in certain offices, Mr. Van Wyck stated that two Members of Congress received their salaries half as much as the Clerks in the Pension Office. Unknown to Mr. Hon. George W. Jones, of Tennessee, was sitting in the room, and immediately commenced an assault upon Mr. Van Wyck in his presence, striking him several times. The clerks interfered and the parties were separated. It is understood that both civil and criminal suits will be instituted against the honorable member.

In the mean time Mr. Van Wyck, the testimony is closed, and the arguments of counsel commenced.

We noticed in our harbor yesterday the schooner HELEN LANDERS, Capt. Cleveland, with a beautiful flag at her main-head, with the following appropriate inscription floating in the lake breeze:—

SCOTT AND GRAHAM
HARBOR AND RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

[Georgia Times.

It is evident that Capt. Gordon Cumming agrees with the Democratic Convention, that "appropriation for improvements are unconstitutional;" nor will Gen. Pierce be "voluntarily" called upon them.' The Northwest is beginning to find out who its friends are, and will see to it that appropriations prevent the attendance' of the Locofoco dildoe when the subject comes up at Washington, so they were did that an illiberal and ungenerous of his, at Chicago first, and Washington afterwards.—[Albany Evening Journal.

RELIGIOUS PROSCRIPTION IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Our ill-informed neighbors do not seem to know that it requires a two-third vote to abolish the present constitution? The vote upon the question in relation to the Governor and Lieut. Governor, for instance, stood 21,383 to 12,000—that is, over a two-thirds vote and some thousands to spare.

Secondly, No one expected the Democrats to a party' to do it. They would have had the help of the Whigs, as the enemy closely shows.

Thirdly, If they could not get a two-third vote, they could at least have given a majority for abolishing, and they did not even do that.

Fourthly. Whatever else could have been done, there could not have been a majority of 11,000 against removing the "religious test" which exists "as a party" lest their aid.—Albany Evening Journal.

☞ Perhaps some of our Democratic friends may be glad to see what the views of the Republic thinks of Winfield Scott, as a soldier and a citizen. The following extracts from one of his editorials, commenting on the bad taste of the Whigs in selecting General Scott as their candidate in 1848, speaks upon both points. It is from the Washington Union of 1848.

"General Scott is an older soldier than General Taylor—one who is at least equally, if not more accomplished, and who has distinguished himself in more and brilliant battles during the war—who captured Vera Cruz, and Santa Anna, and the capital of Mexico—and not he, who has more the quality of a Civilian, and a bold Saxon as a Whig.

WEBSTER MEETING.—An attempt was made to hold a Webster meeting in Boston, yesterday, the 14th inst., but it was a signal failure. The friends of Mr. Webster are his own sons.

It is an insult to the man to offer him as an independent candidate, when he has expressed himself in substance a hundred time and time again

"I am a Whig. I have always been a Whig, and I always said be one; and if there are any who would turn me out of the pale of that organization "let them see who will get out first," &c. "I am ready to submit to all decisions of Whig Conventions or caucuses on which they are authorized to make decisions," &c. &c.

The price of gas in Boston is $3 per thousand cubic feet; in New York, $3 50; in Baltimore, $4; in Charleston, Savannah, Richmond, Providence, Worcester, Lowell, $3 50 each.

☞ Immediately after receiving intelligence at Washington, of the great fire at Montreal, on Sunday, Mr. George Sumner addressed a letter to President Fillmore, suggesting that a large number of tents, belonging to the military stores of the United States should be sent to Montreal for the use of those who had been suddenly rendered homeless; and citing as a precedent, the fact when the awful conflagration occurred at Hamburg, in 1842, by which two thousand houses were destroyed, the King of Prussia, on the recommendation of Baron Humboldt, sent a great number of tents from Berlin, and the charity was found most timely. Early on Monday morning, in the absence of the Secretary of War, for the forenoon, at Alexandria, the President laid the letter before General Scott, who promptly reported in favor of its recommendation, with the addition of a large quantity of blankets and one hundred thousand dollars in money. Notwithstanding this recommendation of Gen. Scott, the President has determined that no aid can be furnished to the sufferers by the Montreal fire without the intervention of Congress.

SUDDEN RISE IN HAMS.—Mr. Warren Stagg, a large provision dealer of Cincinnati, Ohio, has recently packed in an elaborately finished black walnut case, glittering on either head with heavy silver plates, secured by solid silver nails, a lot of navy choice sugar cured Hams, each carefully wrapped in fine cloth, and sent as a present to Queen Victoria. On one head of the barrel—which is elegant enough to furnish a royal dining-room—is the following inscription, graven on a large plate of solid silver:

WARREN STAGGS CHOICE SUGAR CURED HAMS.
PRESENTED TO
HER MAJESTY QUEEN VICTORIA,
Through the politeness of our excellent Minister,
Hon. ABBOT LAWRENCE,
BY
WARREN STAGGS,
CINCINNATI, OHIO, U. S. A.

PATRONIZE AT A DISCOUNT.—Daniel Douglass Esq, Agent for the National Washington Monument, has been canvassing this city for the past two months, for that object, and has received the small sum of four hundred and fifty seven dollars and twenty-five cents. Previous to this four hundred and eighty dollars had been contributed. Total, $937 25. By equal proportionment, this city should have paid six thousand dollars. We would like to know why this is? Are our citizens wanting in patriotism? Or why is this disgrace permitted to rest upon us? "O, shame! where is thy blush?"

CONVICT CAUGHT.—About a year ago, a convict named Charles Burrett, alias Bogart effected his escape from Blackwell's Island Penitentiary, by swimming the river. When reaching the shore opposite, the guard fired several shots at him, but could not reach him and he made off at a doe's pace. He then went to California, and returned in the last steamer, disguised with a profusion of hair about his face, and attired in an elegant suit of new clothes; but notwithstanding this, he was recognized yesterday in New York by Officer Hogan, who observed him walking down Wall-street, and immediately took him into custody, and apprised Mr. Keon, the keeper of the fort.

The "Whig Rangers," a large body of gallant and enthusiastic New Orleans Whigs, who did such good service in the campaign of 1848, under the style of the "Fillmore Rangers," has been reorganized under the title of the "Scott Rangers."

We learn from the Detroit papers that Major Wm. Woodbridge has formally announced to Maj. Kemley, for some time one of the regents of the Michigan University, both influential Democrats and warm personal friends of Gen. Cass, have come out for Scott for President.

☞ The New-York Herald of this morning publishes a long article purporting to have been written by Gen. Scott in 1844, upon the Naturalization laws. A prominent Democrat at our office says, that he never before was willing to acknowledge that Scott was a man of so much ability and judgment as appears in that article. It suits him exactly.

ANOTHER ANTI RENT OUTRAGE.—On the 8th of July, a party of anti-renters crossed from Rensselaer County to Williamstown, Massachusetts, and started to drive off a lot of cattle, but were prevented by the citizens, who turned out in large force. Several shots were exchanged, but no one was injured. When will these scoundrels get their deserts?

PROGRESS.—Mr. O'Reilly, the Telegraph proprietor, has recently issued a circular, calling the attention of the public and of railroad managers to the necessity of putting up telegraph lines along railroads, with instruments at each station, a system of signals marking the departure, movement and arrival of each train. A good suggestion.

COUNTING OUT THE STEAM UP.—There was an attempt to get up a Union Convention in Alabama, on the 12th inst., but it was no go; they couldn't get the steam up. Only four counties were represented, and those but partially. Go it young'uns!

BOSTON.—Marshall Tukey, one of the most efficient officers ever known in Boston, has been removed, and Gilbert Nourse, late of the firm of Burgess, Nourse & Mason, appointed in his stead, as City Marshall or Chief of Police.

☞ On Monday next, a Convention of the friends of Temperance will be held in Philadelphia, for the purpose of securing the passage of a law similar to that now in force in Maine.

The Whigs of the 11th Congressional District of Vermont have nominated Andrew Tracy, of Woodstock, for Member of Congress, and E. Kirtland, of Brattleborough, Elector for the District.

COUNTERFEITER.—Francis B. Bailey, Pauline Mitchell, and William Simmonds, were arrested at Cincinnati on the 17th inst., for manufacturing counterfeit U. S. coin. They were caught in the act.

☞ A large meeting was held in New-York city, yesterday, for the purpose of raising money for the sufferers by the late fire in Montreal.—Brooklyn is asleep yet.

FIRES.—It has been ascertained by the N. Y. Tribune, that it costs $44.10 per day to feed each Alderman in that city. Our Aldermen are modest, comparatively speaking.

☞ A mass meeting is to be held by the Whigs at Bunker Hill on the 14th Sept, the anniversary of Scott's entering into the City of Mexico.
