YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION.

Pleasant Social Meeting at the First Baptist Church.

There was a pleasant gathering last night of the young people's Baptist union of Brooklyn, at the First Baptist church, Clinton and Pierrepont streets. Joseph F. DuBois played several selections on the piano. Miss Jessie Mills gave a recitation and responded to an encore. A trio from the Wren quartet, including Mr. Weeks, Mr. Casson and Mr. Nichols, rendered several selections. Miss Estelle Richardson sang "Love's Sorrow," and, as an encore, "Last Night," accompanied by Miss Edna Luyster. Refreshments were served shortly after 10 o'clock. The hall was nicely decorated and was crowded with merry makers. The refreshment tables were prettily adorned with roses and other flowers.

The officers of the union are George R. Cummings, president; Walter S. Noon, first vice president; Frazier M. Dolbeer, second vice president; Charles S. Cregar, secretary; Herbert M. Bailey, assistant secretary, and Jared J. Chambers, treasurer. The meeting committee who had charge of the entertainment included Charles B. Barnes, Herbert E. Locke, William M. Frost, Edwin H. Haven and W. A. Becken.
