RIDGWAY WINS A PRIZE

AT A PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE PARTY AT LAKE HOPATCONG.

Lake Hopatcong, N. J., August 31—The season is continuing to be prosperous at this resort and a fair sprinkling of Long Island people are among the sojourners. The first and only progressive euchre party of the season at the Hotel Breslin was held this week. The organizers of the party were Mrs. James W. Ridgway, Mrs. Clouser, Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Theodore Lutkins, all of Brooklyn. The prizes, that were worth $60, were selected by Mrs. Ridgway. The party occupied twenty tables. A feature of the game was that District Attorney Ridgway himself won the first men's prize, a pair of silver back brushes, and he accepted gracefully the congratulations of his friends. The base nine of the Hopatcong club, of which Mr. Theodore Lutkins is manager, and T. Lutkins, jr., captain, won a game from the Morristown club and still retains a clean record.
