partment Inspector Loud.

Dr. James D. Wade, a man of splendid military record, died suddenly while attending a patient last Sunday night. Dr. Wade was 64 years old. At the time the war broke out he was a student. He dropped his studies and enlisted in the Forty-seventh Regiment. Being mustered out he joined the 172d New York Volunteers. He subsequently became a Captain in the Eighty-seventh United States Regiment. Dr. Wade was a popular member of Harry Lee Post, No. 21, G. A. R.
