QUEENS PAGE DELIGHTS HIM.

Mr. Sanders Would Be Unhappy if Forced to Miss It—Praise From W. H. Wade.

Samuel Sanders, vice president of the Allied Civics Association, who resides in Jamaica, thinks well of the Eagle's Queens Borough page. He said to-day that where before he read the paper only at intervals, now, since the inauguration of the Queens Borough page, he cannot do without it. "To miss reading it for one day," he declared, "would make me feel unhappy indeed."

William H. Wade, president of the Richmond Hill Republican Club, as an old reader of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle, said he is pleased to say that the Queens Borough page meets with his entire approval.

"The Eagle has done the right thing," he declared, "in giving Queens Borough residents a page of good newsy stuff every day. I am enthusiastic about it."

TO PRESENT "SALOMY JANE."
