RECEPTION TO NEW PASTOR.

Rev. Robert E. Hill and Mrs. Hill Welcomed to Trinity Baptist Church.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Hill were tendered a social and reception last evening by the officers and members of the Trinity Baptist Church, Greene and Patchen avenues. Since the second Sunday in January, when he was installed as pastor of Trinity, both Mr. and Mrs. Hill have endeared themselves to the members of the church and congregation and the warm welcome that the new pastor and his wife received last night was but a slight token of the high esteem in which they are held.

The social programme, which preceded the reception, included a piano solo by Miss Duffield, a number of well rendered selections by the Suburban Male Quartet, and solos by Mrs. Tolkamp, Miss Bergdahl, and V. T. Ketcham, jr. The closing anthem by the choir was Dudley Buck's "Sing Alleluia Forth."

The pastor and his wife, who stood in front of the prettily decorated pulpit, were assisted in receiving by Harry Burrows, president of the board of trustees, and Mrs. Burrows. The 300 odd church members and friends were escorted down the aisles and formally introduced to the receiving party. One of the first to be introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Hill was Mrs. Eliza A. Wade, 96 years young, and one of the oldest living charter members of Trinity.

The Rev. Dr. E. P. Farnum, superintendent of the Church Extension Society of Long Island, made a few remarks welcoming Mr. and Mrs. Hill to the city, which were happily responded to by the pastor. Light refreshments were served in the Sunday school room by the young ladies of the church.

The entertainment committee, of which Harry Wade was chairman, included V. T. Ketcham, George McElroy, A. H. Tolcamp, and Mrs. E. A. Moore.
