WILSNACK NAMED BY REPUBLICANS

Efforts to Make Bull Moose Combination in Fourth, All Fail.

COMMITTEE AT JAMAICA.

Kochendorfer, Bull Moose Candidate for Assembly From Fourth A. D., Gets Only Three Votes.

Theodore P. Wilsnack of Richmond Hill has been nominated by the Republicans of the Fourth District, Queens, to run for Member of Assembly in place of Alexander Bills, the Jamaica lawyer, who had been designated and who withdrew from the race, a few days ago, because of several deaths in his family and pressing legal duties which will demand his attention for the next three or four weeks.

At a convention of the Fourth Assembly District Committee, held on Saturday evening, at the Jamaica Republican Clubrooms, three of the members, believing that a combination with the Bull Moosers might be advantageous, urged the nomination of John Kochendorfer of Richmond Hill, who is running for Assembly on the Progressive ticket. But a majority of those present opposed the proposition vigorously, and Wilsnack received the nomination, the vote being 25 to 3.

Joseph S. Green, chairman of the district committee, presided at the meeting, thirty out of the total number of thirty-eight members being present, and twenty-eight voting.

Frank Phillips of Richmond Hill placed the name of Kochendorfer in nomination. He was seconded by William H. Wade, president of the Richmond Hill Republican Club. H. Homer Moore nominated Wilsnack, and he was seconded by L. C. Blaut and Gustave J. Schaefer of Woodhaven, and Edwin Rees, substituting for Frank Bambara of Jamaica. The Wilsnack supporters contended that it would be wrong to name a man who had left the Republican party. The three who voted for Kochendorfer were John Dolan of Richmond Hill, who acted under instructions from his election district, and Messrs. Wade and Phillips.

Theodore P. Wilsnack was twice elected to the Assembly from the Fourth District. In previous elections Wilsnack received many votes from among the Democrats. In a three-cornered fight, three years ago, Wilsnack was elected to the Assembly by a majority of 1,354. He failed to receive a renomination two years ago, when Frank A. Leete was named. Leete was defeated then by a majority of about 1,700 votes.
