REPUBLICANS RE-ELECT.

Wade Begins Seventh Year as President at Richmond Hill.

Richmond Hill, December 15—All the officers of the Richmond Hill Republican Club, with the exception of two members of the Board of Trustees, were re-elected at a meeting recently held in the organization's handsome clubhouse on Lefferts avenue. William H. Wade will enter upon his seventh term as president. The other officers elected were: Francis H. Luce, first vice-president; Warren B. Ashmead, second vice-president; Walter T. Edgerton, secretary; Frank H. Woodruff, jr., financial secretary; Skidmore Pettit, jr., treasurer, and E. W. Voorhees, sergeant-at-arms. Three members of the Board of Trustees who were re-elected are: T. P. Wilsnack, John W. Dolan and Frederick W. Dawson. The two new trustees are David McAlveen and Henry Vollmer, jr.
