NAME TRAVIS DINNER BOARD

Men Prominent in Borough, for Reception Board at Feast on December 9.

William Boardman, whom Controller elect Eugene M. Travis has elated become his fourth deputy, today announced a committee of 150 who will serve as the reception committee at the Travis dinner to be held at the Imperial on the night of December 8.

Plans for the dinner are progressing rapidly. The speakers have not yet been definitely chosen but they will probably include among others, State Chairman Frederick C. Tanner, Father Bedford, Republican County Leader Jacob A. Livingston and the Rev. S. Parkes Cadman.

There will be delegations from several different counties outside New York and Brooklyn. Postmaster Ashhead of Jamaica, Borough President Maurice E. Connolly of Queens and William H. Wade, chairman of the Queens Republican County Committee, will head a big delegation from there and Supreme Court Justice Mortelaurer of Dutchess will head a body of Republicans from that county. Charles Jerome Edwards, a Democrat of the Bedford section, is getting up a party of Democrats from that part of Brooklyn to attend the affair.

On the reception committee there are numerous men prominent in the affairs of the Bull Moose party as well as Republican leaders and well known Democrats. The Progressives are represented on the committee by Albert R. Hobo and Philip H. Luther, former president of the Logan Club.

Mr. Boardman is chairman of the arrangement committee, which includes, besides himself, Charles G. Bulmann, president of the Mechanics Bank; W. B. Howard, Michael J. Dady, the veteran leader of the First Assembly District, and J. H. Rogers.

The reception committee includes Supreme Court Justices Luke D. Stapleton and Joseph A. Burr, County Judges Norman S. Dike and Lewis L. Fawcett, Borough President Lewis H. Pounds, Civil Service Commissioner Darwin R. James, Elections Commissioner and G. O. P. County Leader Jacob A. Livingston, Register Edward T.
