W. H. WADE WINS IN QUEENS G.O.P. FIGHT

Defeats George W. Vreeland by Ten-Vote Margin for County Chairmanship.

(Special to The Eagle.)

Richmond Hill, L. I., October 6—William H. Wade was re-elected chairman of the Republican County Committee at a reorganization meeting of the committee last night at the Richmond Hill Republican Clubhouse. Wade, on the first ballot, defeated his opponent, George W. Vreeland, former president of the Rockaways, by ten votes. Wade at first declined the election, and it was only after Joseph A. De Bragga, Republican leader of the county, withdrew Vreeland's candidacy, and the second vote stood 219 to 51 for Wade, that the county chairman was willing to accept the election.

Upon motion of Francis H. Luce of Woodhaven, the procedure of last year was followed, giving the First Assembly District the privilege of selecting one of its men as vice chairman; the Second to take the treasurer and the Third, the secretary. The First District nominated Theron H. Burden and Roe S. Johnson for vice chairman, but Johnson declined, and the secretary, on motion, cast one vote for Burden. The Third Assembly District re-elected Ferdinand M. Becker of Ridgewood secretary, and the Second Assembly District chose Charles Klingenberg of Woodside treasurer without contest.

The committee formally indorsed the ticket nominated at the Republican primaries.

The following were elected delegates to various vacancies in committees:

Judiciary Committee—First A. D., John Wagner and W. Brengel; Second A. D., W. S. Johnson and R. L. Smith; Third A. D., Joseph H. De Bragga and Ferdinand M. Becker; Fourth A. D., Frank Hulbert and William A. De Groot.

Ninth Congressional District Committee—Third A. D., H. B. Rothwell and Frank L. Plass; Fourth A. D., Alexander Wise and Anthony Moors.

First Congressional District Committee—Second A. D., John Newbold Jr. and W. H. Dettmer; Fourth A. D., James S. Eadie and Leonard A. Barthel.
