"GOOD APPLE CROP MEANS G. O. P. YEAR"

Wilsnack, Optimistic, to Give Fruit From His Farm to Voters.

OPENS QUEENS HEADQUARTERS.

Republicans Expect That Hughes and Whitman Will Speak in the County.

"Whenever the crop of apples on my Rockmaple farm has been good the crop of Republican votes has been likewise," and Deputy Excise Commissioner Theodore P. Wilsnack hastens to add, "the crop of apples is good this year. 'Nuff said."

Wilsnack opened the Queens County Republican headquarters yesterday at 371 Fulton street, Jamaica, and he expects to use several barrels of his famous red apples in the campaign.

"I'm waiting for the crop to ripen," Mr. Wilsnack said to the newspaper men yesterday, "and sometime between now and Election Day I'll have them ready for distribution." As in previous campaigns, all callers at the Jamaica headquarters will receive apples with their campaign literature. Wilsnack's property north of Troy is "some farm," as attested by his friends of all political complexions who have been his guests there.

Preparations are being made by the Republicans in Queens County to carry on an active campaign. Efforts are being made to get Charles E. Hughes and Governor Charles S. Whitman to speak in the county. Tomorrow evening Justice Cropsey is listed to speak at the Jamaica Republican headquarters, under the auspices of the Queens County Cropsey Campaign Committee, an organization of Queens County lawyers, headed by Leander B. Faber.

James Gordon, chairman of the First Assembly District Committee, has charge of Republican quarters at 301 Steinway avenue, Long Island City. The Second Assembly District quarters are at the Progressive Republican Clubhouse, Jackson avenue, Corona, with Herbert Conklin, State Committeeman of the district, in charge. The Third Assembly District quarters are at 2394 Myrtle avenue, Ridgewood, under the supervision of Ferdinand M. Becker. At Flushing quarters are in Main street, where Frank Hulbert holds forth. Woodhaven quarters, at Jamaica and Gherardi avenues, are under the direction of State Committeeman Anthony Moore, and Richmond Hill quarters, at 3308 Jamaica avenue, are directed by former County Chairman William H. Wade.
