DR. JOHN E. WADE DIES

John E. Wade, M. D., died suddenly yesterday at his home, 908 Greene ave. Seventy-one years ago he was born, in old New York City, the son of James M. and Eliza Ann Wade. His mother lived until she was within a few months of 100 years old, and died on December 15, 1915, at her son's residence. Dr. Wade was graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and practiced in Brooklyn for many years until his death. He was a member of the Kings County Medical Society and of the Long Island Medical Society, as well as of the Royal Arcanum. Like his mother, he was a devout member of the Greene Avenue Baptist Church, in which he took an active interest, and the pastor, the Rev. Maurice Ambrose Levy, will conduct funeral services at Dr. Wade's late home, on Monday afternoon. The burial will be in Maple Grove Cemetery, Richmond Hill. Dr. Wade is survived by a son, Frank E. Wade of Richmond Hill, and a daughter, Miss Adelaide Wade; also bl several nephews and nieces.
