Fantasia in D Minor, Mozart—Velma Cline.

Memory Contest Monday by Junior Music Club

Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Junior Music club will meet at the Castanea building for the last meeting of the year. The memory contest program will be the occasion of this meeting which promises to be a most interesting affair, for the members, who have looked forward all year to this musical event. The performers will be some of the best musicians of Asheville and they will play and sing behind a screen so the club members will judge entirely by the ear. Beautiful prizes have been donated by friends of the club, and will be presented to those who can tell the name of the compositions played and the name of the composers. Mrs. O. C. Hamilton has contributed a $10 gold piece, Mr. Dunham has given a violin, Mr. Falk donated a leather music roll, Mr. Hood made a contribution of three classic records. Beautiful books were sent by Mr. Edwin L. Brown, jr., Mr. Taylor Rogers and Mrs. Crosby Adams, this being one of her own composition called "Six Dolls Alive."

Members of the committee in charge of the Junior Music club have all given attractive prizes also.

The judges for the contest will be Mrs. Grace Potter Carroll, Mrs. Crosby Adams, Dr. Wade Brown, Mrs. Ed Swain, Miss Linda Scharlie, Miss Nan Stevens, of Atlanta, national chairman of the program for the biennial in 1923, will make a talk to the club on junior music club work.

While the judges are examining the papers, the new officers assisted by the retiring officers of the club will serve a refreshing ice.

Kenilworth Soldiers Thank Asheville Women for Aiding Ticket Sale

The Kenilworth chapter of The Disabled Veterans of the World War has expressed its deep and sincere appreciation to Mrs. W. L. Dunn and the ladies of Asheville associated with her, for the valuable aid they rendered in the recent Imperial theatre ticket selling campaign. It was largely through their generous efforts that the sale was such a success. Part of the proceeds of the sale was given to the local chapter and will be used in helping disabled ex-service men at Kenilworth press their legitimate claims against the government and other worthy causes, in close co-operation with the Red Cross.

This work was sponsored and made possible through the generosity of Mr Carroll, manager of the Imperial theatre who gave it his heartiest co-operation.
