MOTORCARS' TOLL 3 LIVES IN 3 HOURS

Children Victims of Fatal Street Accidents.

Three children killed in motorcar accidents was the toll of three hours yesterday afternoon. Of the drivers whose cars caused the deaths two were not held, but Anthony Malia, 21, who jumped out of his car and fled, was arrested at his home, 379 Manhattan ave., later. Malia will be arraigned today in the Bridge Plaza Court on a charge of homicide.

Isaac Greenstein, 4, of 184 Manhattan ave., was crossing that avenue at Stagg st. when he was knocked down by a touring car. The driver fled with his companion as a threatening crowd gathered. An ambulance surgeon from St. Catherine's Hospital pronounced Isaac dead.

Later two detectives of the Stagg st. station, Carroll and Ferris, arrested Malia, owner of the car, at his home. Malia denied he had been in the car at the time of the accident, but was identified by witnesses.

Israel Samovitz, 3, of 525 Watkins st., ran into the side of a truck belonging to Turner Bros. of 415 Snedeker ave., and driven by George Humbler of 557 Kosciusko st. The driver was not held.

Mabel Muzzi, 9 years old, of 84 Pine st., Brockton, Mass., visiting her elder brother John at 435 Lafayette ave., was crossing that thoroughfare at Franklin ave. when she was struck by a car driven by Joseph Fishbein of 83 Stockton st. Patrolman Ciason rushed the girl to the private hospital of Dr. Wade at 435 Greene ave. Dr. Wade immediately operated for a fractured skull. The girl died after the operation. Fishbein was not arrested.
