QUEENS VILLAGE

Church Society Receives Slate For Coming Year

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of the Queens Evangelical Church, Queens Village, held its monthly meeting in the church hall. Florence M. Beck, president, presided.

A slate of officers, to be elected at the March meeting, was presented by the nominating committee. The candidates are Miss Beck and Dorothy Jarvis, for president; Jessine Cordes, Doris Edwards, Jeannette Murphy and Elsie Torkelson, for vice president; Constance Henzler, for secretary, and Betty Farber, Eric Lindgren, Dorothy Schloetel and Durlyn Wade, for treasurer.

Committee reports were given by Mr. Wade, Peggie Krudop, Irene Parker and Ann Merschrod.

A worship service, under the direction of Jeannette Murphy, prayer meeting chairman, is being planned for the Tom Noonan Rescue Mission, in Chinatown, on March 1. A tour of the section will be made under the guidance of Daniel J. Husband, acting superintendent at the mission.
