Frank E. Wade, 68, Borough Attorney

Reprinted From Yesterday's Late Editions

Frank Edward Wade, 68, an attorney, and member of an old Brooklyn family, who for the last several years had been connected with the Internal Revenue Department, Manhattan, died yesterday (Sunday) at the Wade Hospital, 495 Greene Ave. He was the son of the late Dr. John E. Wade, Brooklyn physician, and Mrs. Hester Rogers Wade, and made his home in Greene Avenue.

Mr. Wade was graduated from Amherst College in 1901 and received his law degree from the New York Law School. His father died in 1919. The son was never married and there are no immediate survivors.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorow (Tuesday) at the Fairchild Chapel, 86 Lefferts Place. The Rev. Dr. Charles F. McCoy, former pastor of the Greene Avenue Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Maple Grove Cemetery, Kew Gardens.

Mrs. Mary Farron
