The winners are . . .

Each week during this football season, four members of The Florida Times-Union/Jacksonville Journal sports staff — columnists Greg Larson and Tom Cornelison and writers Jeff Miller and Pat Dooley — will pick the top college and professional games of the week.

College pick: Florida vs. Georgia

Greg Larson: Larson honors his vow not to pick this game.
Tom Cornelison: Florida's football team is beginning to get like Georgia's, playing its best in its biggest games. Also, the new laid-back approach of coach Galen Hall could pay off. Florida 17, Georgia 14.
Jeff Miller: Yeah, I know I said I'd never pick against Georgia. But was that General Motors that beat Auburn last week? Florida 30, Georgia 20.
Pat Dooley: The script will look familiar. Georgia 23, Florida 21.

Pro pick: Raiders at Seattle

Greg Larson: The Raiders won't lose again until Dec. 2. Raiders 30, Seattle 21.
Tom Cornelison: No reason to pick against Seattle, so why am I doing it? Because the Raiders have been in more "big games." Raiders 28, Seattle 24.
Jeff Miller: Don't leave the Raiders for dead just yet. Raiders 27, Seattle 21.
Pat Dooley: Defending the world championship has taken a toll on the Raiders. Seattle 24, Raiders 21.

BAYARD GREYHOUNDS

Pierre Critter co-favorite in this afternoon's feature

Juvenile Pierre Critter was well-regarded at mutuel windows before his first race since August. He won handily, driving from second at the last turn to cross 3 lengths in front.

That early week win should install Pierre as co-favorite in this afternoon's 5/16th-mile feature. The 22-month Speed Ticket heir meets capable Due Diligence.

Tonight's fifth, ninth and 11th races offer Grade A purses to crowd-popular entries.

Sir Broomley, No. 5 in the fifth race, tries for his fourth consecutive win. Patrick Critter and Roger Sales chase 10th in fall-season trifectas from their ninth-race posts. The best-graded 3/8th-mile also starts Dreamy Breeze and Agronsky, each in the money eight times this season.

Gift Box saved her Grade A status by racing to quiniela lights with City Ike last weekend.

The sister of course champion and favored Bayard Stakes nominee Classical Act likes to race wide and benefits from her No. 8 blanket draw in tonight's 11th race.

City Ike, also-ran without excuse in the midweek feature after three straight wins, contends wearing No. 2.

Post times are 1 and 7:45 p.m.
