Southside scores early in win over Vikings

By Tom Cain
Neighbor Sports Writer

The Southside Knights did their damage in the first three innings and then hung on for a 10-7 win over the Arlington Vikings in a girls softball game last Thursday at Arlington.

Southside scored three runs in the first inning. The Knights strung together five singles and an Arlington error in jumping to the early lead. Kristin Gandy and Amy Grove each drove in a run in the first. The other Southside run was unearned.

Arlington took its only lead of the afternoon when it pushed across four runs in its half of the first. Southside aided and abetted the Vikings' outburst by committing four errors in the inning. Beth Ghioto's two-run, two-out single to left was the big hit for the Vikings.

The 4-3 on the scoreboard at the end of one, besides giving the score of the game, accurately reflected the chilly afternoon temperature. Anyone selling hot chocolate at this game would have made a mint.

A rash of two-out hits helped Southside erupt for five in the top of the second. Grove, Anita Edwards and Karen McBride all had run-producing two-out singles for the Knights.

After Southside's big second inning, the game settled down and was dominated by pitching and defense. Knights' pitcher Melissa Ricketts and the Vikings' Kim Hickey displayed excellent control following shaky starts. They were backed up with some good glove work by their teammates.

Arlington left fielder Lara Schermock came up with the defensive gem of the game for the Vikings in the fifth inning. Schermock, battling a tough sun, backhanded a long liner off the bat of Ricketts.

Grove, Southside's shortstop, returned the favor in the bottom of the fifth when she went deep into the hole, backhanded a hot shot by Hickey and threw her out at first.

Arlington did score twice in the fifth inning, however Grove's fielding gem stopped the Vikings' rally cold.

The line score for Southside read, 10 runs, 17 hits and 8 errors. Four of the Knights' miscues were committed in the first inning. Ricketts was the winning pitcher.

Arlington had 7 runs, 11 hits and 2 errors. Hickey was the losing pitcher.

Ricketts and Corena White each had three hits for Southside. Grove had three RBI for the Knights'.

Katie Vince had three hits for Arlington. Ashley Cook picked up two RBI.

Southside is now 5-1 on the season. Arlington is 3-3.
